Firefighter – Casual Positions

Kananaskis Emergency Services is seeking highly motivated and enthusiastic team players to fulfil the role of Driver/Operator within the organization. Reporting to the Station Officer, the Casual Firefighter is responsible on an as-needed basis for all fire and rescue operations and operational assignments as provided from the Kananaskis Emergency Services Centre. This will include emergency and non-emergency operations as related to fire suppression, vehicle rescue, medical first response, structural rescue, hazardous material interventions, wildland urban interface, wildland fire suppression, helicopter operations and assisting with backcountry/slope rescue. As well as routine equipment maintenance, station duties, training and public engagement activities.

Casual Firefighters will provide supplemental operational staffing on weekends (Friday, Saturday, Sunday plus Mondays of long weekends). The 24 hour shifts include: 12 core hours (0800-2000) and 12 on-call hours (2000-0800). Accommodations during on-call hours are provided as well as access to fitness facilities.

Minimum Qualifications:

- High School Diploma
- Accredited NFPA 1001 Level 2
- Accredited NFPA 1002 Pump Operator
- ICS100
- Valid Class 3/4(or higher) Alberta Operator's License with air brake endorsement, less than 6 demerits
- Standard First Aid, CPR-HCP.
- 2 years' experience

Preference will be given to applicants that have completed NFPA 1002 Aerial Operator, NFPA 1051 Wildland Firefighter, Emergency Medical Responder training, have a demonstrated knowledge of the Kananaskis Improvement District and have completed an accredited Defensive Driving Course.

Wage: $21.00/hr (core) plus $5.00/hr (on-call) (responses during on-call hours will be paid at $21.00/hr)

Other Benefits: Additional training/course opportunities (ICS, Aerial, 1021, etc.), annual training credit

Note: This position is with the Kananaskis Improvement District and is not part of the Government of Alberta or Alberta Union of Provincial Employees.

We thank all applicants for their interest; however only individuals selected for an interview will be contacted. This competition may be used to fill future vacancies.
